We are aware that tuition is a significant expense for our families. In addition to need-based tuition assistance from the School, there are a number of other options families might consider when applying to Eagle Hill School:

- Tuition is a tax-deductible medical expense for most families when a child is diagnosed with a learning disability. Please be sure to consult your personal tax advisor to confirm your eligibility.
- Up to $10,000 from a 529 plan can be used towards a private school education per year. Funds from an HSA or FSA may be eligible to be used towards tuition.
- Tuition paid by a generous benefactor directly to Eagle Hill qualifies as a tax-exempt gift to the family and allows the gift amount to exceed the gift tax limit.

- Eagle Hill School has partnered with Your Tuition Solution to provide loans up to $50,000 with flexible terms, low-interest rates, and budget-friendly choices. For more information, click here.
- Public funding through your school district is available for families who qualify. If you have questions about this process, please contact the Admissions Office.
